Editorial

Nepalese capital market is experiencing significant developments in the last few years. Replacement of open-out-cry trading system with computerized trading system, implementation of Wide Area Network (WAN) system which enabled brokers to trade from their own office, live trading at website for real time information are few examples of such development. These positive changes on capital market as well as political environment have increased investors confidence which boosts various indicators during that period. Secondary market indicators like NEPSE index, market capitalization, daily turnover, number of trading, ratio of traded shares to listed shares, ratio of market capitalization to GDP has increased significantly during last two years.

Now, the situation is in reverse direction since last few months. Up to this review month of Poush, the daily trading volume is continuously decreasing. Number of trades and number of trading shares are fluctuating largely. More importantly, NEPSE index, average price per share and market capitalization is decreasing sharply. The trend in market shows that despite the positive information regarding cash dividend, stock dividend and right shares are unable to stop the decreasing trend of their corresponding price.

There are various causes for the decrement of secondary market indicators. The major one is signaling effect of global financial crisis which causes the bankruptcy of tycoon international companies and decrement of major capital market indices. Similarly, the increment of capital gain tax from Ashwin 2065 may also be one important cause for Nepalese financial market meltdown. Moreover impact of tax policy by government like VDIS and the notification to furnish sources of income to acquire land, building and vehicle above certain limit might have contributed to loose investors' confidence. The other voice about the market is also equally important that the indicators at market reached unnecessary height during previous years so this is just a technical correction on the same. What ever be the cause, now investors can hope that in the coming days market would be stable and indicators will again start moving in positive trend genuinely.

The Government of Nepal, under a program initiated to reform the capital market, converted the Security Exchange Centre into Nepal Stock Exchange Limited in 1993. The main objective of conversion was to promote specialize secondary market in Nepal. Secondary market indicators show that NEPSE has grown tremendously both in its service delivery and the value of transaction it carries. The number of market participants and transaction has increased. The volume of trade has gone up. Market capitalization has grown considerably. And NEPSE index has shot up. At present there are 149 companies listed in NEPSE.

With the change into profit making institution, NEPSE's authorized capital was increased to Rs 160 million from Rs 50 million. Likewise, the paid-up capital was raised to Rs 50 million from Rs 34.9 million. Accordingly, NEPSE's constitution in the members of board of directors was also changed to make it more professional and free from conflict of interest.

Market review

The overall performance of primary as well as secondary market during the first six months of the current fiscal year 2008/09 has shown moderate increment as compare to the corresponding period of the last year. In the review period from Shrawan to Poush (mid-July 08 to mid-January 09) of two years FY 2007/08 and FY 2008/09, Security Board of Nepal (SEBO/N) has permitted 17 primary issuance to collect Rs. 4501.05 million which is 66.29 percent increase from the last year's performance during the corresponding period. Similarly, total trading amount of Rs. 13.71 billion at NEPSE floor is an increment of 15.05 percent as compared with the corresponding period previous fiscal year. But the closing NEPSE index, on Poush 2065, of 659.81 points is a decline of 31.19 percent in respect to the closing index of same date last year.

In the month of Poush, 2065, the trend of major indicators of the secondary market followed almost same declining trend as they did in previous month. During the month the total trading volume was Rs. 1.40 billion which is a decline of 25.07 percent from the trading amount of Mangshir 2065 and a decline of 53.68 percent from previous year's same month. Similarly, important indicator of secondary market NEPSE index has decreased by 10.21 percent and market capitalization decreased by 6.58 percent from previous month. The decreasing trend of market indicators in the review month of Poush is due to increased capital gain tax and indirect impact of global financial crisis.

1. Primary market

Important component of capital market, the primary market, witnessed significant growth during the first half of the current fiscal year as compared with previous year. In total 17 approvals for Rs 4501.05 million was approved by SEBON during the period where as this amount was Rs. 2712.09 million for 19 approvals for the same period last year.

Table .1: Primary approval issued by SEBON

S.No	Types of Securities	First Six Months of FY 65-66		First Six Months of FY 64-65

	Total	17	4501.05	19	2712.09

In total Rs. 4501.05 million securities were approved by SEBON for primary issuance with an increase of 66.29 percent from previous year. In the month of Poush only, approval was provided to Bank of Asia Nepal Limited issue Rs. 300 million ordinary shares whereas Nepal Development Bank Limited was permitted to issue right shares worth Rs. 320 million to its existing shareholders. With this, the total number of companies to get approval for right share issue is 14 and two companies viz. Siddhartha Bank Limited and Laxmi Bank Limited were approved for bond issue.

2. Secondary market

The secondary market transaction of securities up to the first half of this fiscal year at NEPSE has increased by 15.05 percent in comparison to the same period of the previous fiscal year and reached Rs. 13.71 billion. But with the trading amount of Rs. 1403.95 million in Poush 2065, the total traded amount has declined by 25.07 percent as compared to the trading of Mangshir of 2065, while in comparison with Poush 2064, it had declined by 53.68 percent. The declining pace on other indicators also continue this month as the closing NEPSE index in Poush 2065 stand at 659.81, showing a decline of 10.21 percent from the closing index of Mangshir 2065 and a decline of 31.19 percent from last year.

Similarly, market capitalization of Rs. 361.92 billion at Poush is a decrease of 6.58 percent from Mangshir 2065 whereas it is an increase of 19.90 percent from the previous year. The decrease in major indicators is the impact of increase in capital gain tax by 50% effective from Asoj 2065 this year and policy announcement to sell the remaining shares of Nepal Telecom to public through the secondary market. Similarly, the likely impact of the policy announcement to show sources of income to acquire land, building and vehicle above a certain limit on their trading has also created runs at capital market to sell their shares. Furthermore, the global financial crisis to some extent also contributed to the decline in the trading of secondary market. However, listing of new companies like Loard Buddha Financial Institution Limited, Nepal Doorsanchar Company Limited, Kaski Finance Limited etc has made the number of listed companies 149 as of end Poush 2065 while it was 145 in Poush 2064 despite the delisting of five companies in the last fiscal year.

2.1 Trading

The half yearly trading amount for the fiscal year 2065/66 is Rs. 13710.24 million which is an increase of 15.05 percent as compared to the previous year's corresponding period. During this period 17,051.02 thousand units of shares were traded from 95,770 transactions whereas the figure was 13,929.5 thousand units of shares from 60,582 transactions during the same period last fiscal year. It shows that although price per share is in decreasing trend in recent months the number of transactions and number of shares traded are increasing.

The trading amount for the month of Poush was registered as Rs. 1403.95 million which decreased by 25.07 percent from the previous month and a decrease of 53.68 percent from the month of Poush of FY 2064/65. Similarly 2,910.19 thousand units of shares from 18,259 number of transactions were traded during the month of Poush which was 2493.96 thousand number of shares from 18,957 transactions in the previous month. With these figures, trading price per share in the month of Poush is Rs. 482.43 which was Rs. 751.26 in the previous month and Rs. 1265.68 in the month of Poush in FY 2064/65. Moreover average trading amount per transaction is Rs. 76890.85 in the month of Poush at current fiscal year which is a decrease of 22.20 percent from the preceding month. This shows that price of the shares are decreasing sharply in the secondary market during the review period and investors are loosing in the market.

Table.3: Data of trading compared with previous month and the same month a year back

Particulars	Poush 2064	Mangshir 2065	Poush 2065
Traded Amount (Rs. in million)	3031.16	1873.61	1403.95
No of Traded Shares ('000)	2394.89	2493.96	2910.19
No of Listed Shares ('000)	264685	506705	511695

Average Market Price per Share (Rs. per share traded)	1265.68	751.26	482.43
Average Daily Trading (Rs in Million)	151.56	89.22	73.89

In the review month the ratio of number of shares traded to number of listed shares is 0.57 percent which was 0.49 percent in previous month and 0.90 percent in the month of Poush 2064. This shows that investors are becoming less attractive and interested to trade their shares at NEPSE trading floor and the cause could be the decreasing price per share at market. It is also proved by the comparison of average trading per day for the given months as the amount is Rs. 73.89 million during the month of Poush 2065 which was Rs. 89.22 million in the previous month and Rs. 151.56 million in Poush 2064. The overall performance of secondary market shows that the continuing trend which started from Ashwin 2065 is still in decreasing trend in the month of Poush and this bearish trend may continue in the coming days.

2.2 Group-wise distribution of the traded amount

Among the nine sectors of listed companies at NEPSE, the trading volume from the commercial bank's group has the highest stake as usual on total trading volume which is 42.4 percent and it is 38.3 percent in the count of number of shares traded. Similarly, finance companies

In comparison with previous month, the stake of commercial banks group has declined whereas finance companies and development bank have increased their stake. In the previous month, the percent were 62.74, 14.47 and 13.42 for commercial banks group, development bank and finance companies' group respectively. Combining together 91.95 percent of the total trading is performed by finance sector alone. This shows that the trading at NEPSE is highly concentrated on financial sector. 5.1 Overall NEPSE Index:

NEPSE index follows the value weighted formula where market capitalization is the basis for calculating index. This index is calculated by considering all listed shares including that of promoter shares of all listed companies at NEPSE. The decreasing trend of market is proved by the NEPSE index as the closing index at Poush end has decreased by 10.21 percent as compared to the last month's closing index. The closing figure at the end of Poush is 659.81 and it was 734.85 at Mangshir end and 958.91 at the end of Poush 2064. During the first half of the current fiscal year it recorded the highest point of 1175.38 on 15 Bhadra 2065 and the closing figure is the lowest during the current fiscal year up to Poush end. The figure at Poush end is the 31.51 percent decrease from the closing index point of preceding fiscal year. The trend of overall NEPSE index can be viewed from the following figure:

5.2 Group-wise index:

The commercial banks group, with largest market capitalization, has the closing index of 627.39 at Poush end whereas it was 1011.09 at the beginning of the current fiscal year and 713.19 at the end of previous month. This is a decrease of 37.95 percent from the starting and 12.03 percent as compare to the previous month which is a significant decrease in percentage among all groups. Similarly hydro power, development banks, finance companies, insurance companies and others group also declined significantly during the period under review. The details of group wise index with the change is presented in the following table:

Table.6 : Change in group wise index in respect to starting of the FY and previous month.

9	Others	769.21	702.58	616.83	-19.81%	-12.21%

5.3 Sensitive Index

Sensitive index is calculated for the 71 companies classified under group "A". The closing sensitive index point was 173.11 at Poush end which was 259.28 at the beginning of this fiscal year. It is a decrease of 9.45 percent from the previous month end and 33.23 percent from the beginning of the current fiscal year.

5.4 Float Index

Float index is calculated on the basis of price movement of securities which are floated to public i.e. Initial Public Offering (IPO). Total shares listed at stock exchange include promoter shares which bear locking period as well as various difficulties for transactions. For this reason such shares are traded very less at secondary market and shares floated under IPO are frequently traded. So, float index provide clear picture of secondary market than any other index. With this concept NEPSE started to calculate float index from 15 September 2008. As almost all indicators have recorded decreasing trend during this fiscal year, float index also decreased to 64.73 point on Poush end from the starting date which is a decrease of 35.27 percent.

5.5 Sensitive Float Index:

The index calculated from the publicly floated shares of group "A" classified companies is known as sensitive float index which was started with the same date of float index. The closing points of 62.90 is a decrease of 37.1 percent from its starting at Bhadra 9, 2065.
